Sean Olson is an executive coach, facilitator and keynote speaker with over 25 years of experience helping individuals, teams and companies reach their full potential and effectiveness. He has worked with officers, directors and senior managers in start-ups to Fortune 500 companies.

As an executive coach, Sean works with individuals and teams from the C-Suite to Managers. His business background and relational skills work to bring powerful results for his clients. He works most effectively with individuals and teams that are looking to move rapidly and are ready to put in the work necessary to change.

As a leadership facilitator and speaker, Sean delivers workshops on Teamwork, Strategy Development, Work Styles, Company Culture, Conflict Management, and Emotional Intelligence. He has also led seminars on Group Coaching and Coaching for Impact. His reviews from speaking often highlight how interactive and engaging he is with the audience.

Sean is an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) with the International Coaching Federation. He is also a Marshall Goldsmith Executive Coaching Stakeholder-Centered Coach. He has served on the program committee for the Indianapolis chapter of ICF and the program committee for the ICF Midwest Regional Conference. He has also completed the CoachU Core Competency Program and is completing the Advanced Corporate CoachU program. Sean also holds his Bachelor's and Master of Arts Degrees.
